

Australia's Global University

Hong Kong Foundation Board

May 2017

Mr Clement Kam Wing Chan
Bachelor of Commerce (UNSW)

Clement is the Managing Director – Assurance of BDO Limited. Clement was previously the Regional Director of Horwath International. Clement is the President of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and is the Chairman of the Audit Profession Reform Working Group in Hong Kong. Clement is Chairman of the Asian-Oceanian Standard-Setters Group. Clement is past Chairman of The Australian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong and served as a Member of the Securities and Future Appeals Tribunal, of the Higher Rights Assessment Board, of the Process Review Panel, Securities and Futures Commission, and, of the Human Capital Committee of Financial Services Development Council. Clement served on the Technical Review Panel Support Group for HIV, The Global Fund.

Mr Vincent Lam
Bachelor of Science (Honours) (The University of Sydney), Master of Commerce (Professional Accountancy) (UNSW)

Vincent Lam is the founder and chairman of the Asiaray Media Group, which has won a number of significant awards in the regional advertising media industry. Vincent is a member of the Eleventh Yunnan Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference and member of the Hong Kong SAR Government Appeal Board (Town Planning). Benefited from the quality education in Australia, Vincent founded the Lam Kwun King Memorial Fund, in memory of his late father, to help underprivileged students with education and health needs. In 2005 Vincent initiated the China Alumni Network with The University of Sydney. Vincent was elected recently as a Fellow of CPA Australia.

Mr Richard Lancaster
Bachelor of Engineering (UNSW)

Richard is the Chief Executive Officer of CLP Holdings Limited. Before assuming his role as Chief Executive in 2013, Richard was the Managing Director of CLP Power Hong Kong Limited. Richard began his career with the Electricity Commission of New South Wales in Australia and he has experience in the power industry and in other industrial operations in Australia, U.K. and Hong Kong. Richard joined CLP in 1992. Richard is a Director of various subsidiary companies and affiliated companies of the CLP Group. He is also a Director of The Business Environment Council and is the Chair of The Hong Kong Member Committee of the World Energy Council.

Ms Jennie Lang
Master of Education Research, Bachelor of Education (with Distinction) and a Bachelor of Arts (University of Newcastle)

Jennie Lang is Vice-President, Advancement, and a member of the University's Executive Team. Prior to this, Jennie was Pro-Vice-Chancellor (International) at UNSW. Jennie has held senior positions in international education, at UNSW since 1997, and previously was part of the pioneering international education teams at Brisbane CAE and the Queensland University of Technology in the late 1980s. Previously, Jennie has chaired the National Committee of Deputy/Pro-Vice-Chancellors (International) for Universities Australia (2009-2012) and the Group of Eight International Directors Committee (2005-2010). Jennie currently serves on the Executive Committee of the Association of International Education Administrators' in North America, and is a Foundation Member of the Export Council of Australia and a member of the Asia-Society Australia Board.

Mr Clement Kin Man Lau
Bachelor of Building (Honours) (UNSW), MBA (The Chinese University of Hong Kong)

Clement is the Head of Development and Valuations at Hongkong Land Limited, which he joined following his graduation in 1988. He worked for the Lands Department of the Hong Kong Government and Airport Authority, prior to rejoining Hongkong Land Limited. Clement was recently elected as a Fellow of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, and is a member of the RICS Hong Kong Board.

Dr Vincent Hong Sui Lo
Doctorate in Business Administration, honoris causa, (The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology), Doctor of Business, honoris causa, (UNSW)

Mr. Vincent H. S. LO is the founder and Chairman of the Shui On Group which was established in 1971. The Group is principally engaged in property development, construction and construction materials with interests in Hong Kong and the Chinese Mainland. The Group's corporate culture and long term objectives are based on its commitment to quality, innovation and excellence. Mr. Lo is also the Chairman of Shui On Land Limited (SOL) and SOCAM Development Limited (SOCAM), both are listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and the Chairman of China Xintiandi Limited (CXTD), wholly owned subsidiary of SOL.

Mr. Lo was awarded the Gold Bauhinia Star (GBS) in 1998 and appointed Justice of the Peace in 1999 by the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR). He was named Businessman of the Year at the Hong Kong Business Awards in 2001, and won the Director of the Year Award from The Hong Kong Institute of Directors in 2002 and Chevalier des Arts et des Lettres by the French government in 2005. Mr. Lo was honoured with "Ernst & Young China Entrepreneur Of The Year 2009" and also, as "Entrepreneur Of The Year 2009" in the China Real Estate Sector. Mr. Lo was made an Honorary Citizen of Shanghai in 1999 and Foshan in 2011. In 2012, the 4th World Chinese Economic Forum honoured Mr. Lo with the Lifetime Achievement Award for Leadership in Property Sector.

In addition to his business capacity, Mr. Lo has been active in community services. He participated in the preparatory works of the establishment of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. He currently serves as a Member of The Twelfth National Committee of Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference, Chairman of The Airport Authority Hong Kong, Hong Kong's representative to the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Business Advisory Council, President of Council for the Promotion & Development of Yangtze, Economic Adviser of the Chongqing Municipal Government, Honorary Life President of Business and Professionals Federation of Hong Kong, among his other positions.

Dr Ronald Lu
Bachelor of Architecture (Honours) (UNSW), Master of Architecture (MIT)

Dr. Ronald Lu is the founder and chairman of Ronald Lu & Partners. Ronald established the award-winning architectural practice, RLP, in 1976 and his extensive experience covers Hong Kong, China and Asia, as well as various local and international engagements in the private and public sectors. Ronald is an active member for a number of Hong Kong and PRC professional organisations within the architecture industry, and he is actively involved with community work. Ronald is an Honorary Professor with the University of Hong Kong.

Emeritus Professor David Nunan
Bachelor of Arts (UNSW), Graduate Diploma in Education (UNSW), Graduate Diploma in English Language Teaching, (University of Exeter), Master of Education (University of Exeter), PhD in Applied Linguistics (Flinders University of South Australia)

David Nunan is an Honorary Professor at the UNSW School of Education. He is also Emeritus Professor of Applied Linguistics at the University of Hong Kong, President Emeritus and Director of the David Nunan Institute for Language Education at Anaheim University, California. He holds several Distinguished Visiting Professorships at Universities in Sweden, the United Kingdom, Japan and Thailand. David is a past President of TESOL International. He had published over 100 books and articles on applied linguistics and research.

Mr Dmitri Potishko
Bachelor of Law (UNSW), Bachelor of Science (UNSW)

Dmitri Potishko is co-head of Equities Trading, Asia Pacific. Previously, he was co-head of Global Equity Exotics Trading and head of US Equity Structured Products and Private Investor Products Group Trading, including Corporate Derivatives. Dmitri joined Goldman Sachs in 2006 as a vice president and was named managing director in 2008 and partner in 2012. Prior to joining the firm, Dmitri worked as an equity derivatives trader, fixed income corporate derivatives marketer and structurer, and a fixed income strategist at Morgan Stanley in New York and Sydney and at Bankers Trust Australia. Dmitri serves on the Board of Directors of the Jewish Community Center in Manhattan. Dmitri earned a BSc (Hons) in 1996 and an LLB in 1999 from the University of New South Wales, Australia.

Mr Graeme Reading
Bachelor of Science (Architecture) (UNSW), Bachelor of Architecture (Honours) (UNSW)

Graeme is the Founder and Director of the Café Deco Group and a qualified architect in the restoration; conservation and preservation of historic buildings in addition to international hotel design and development. Before moving to Hong Kong in 1982 Graeme oversaw the restoration of one of Australia's oldest and most important historical buildings, the former Royal Mint Building in Sydney. Prior to founding Cafe Deco Group in 1982, Graeme worked on a number of resort developments in the Asia Pacific region and was Director – Tech Services ASPAC with the Hyatt Hotels Corporation. In 2011 Chevalier Pacific Holdings Limited, the parent of Igor's Group, and Café Deco Group merged companies.

Mr Terence Spinolo
Bachelor of Science (Architecture) (UNSW), Bachelor of Architecture (Hons) (UNSW)

Terry is the Managing Director of INARC Design Hong Kong Limited, a company he founded in 1988. After graduation and before moving to Hong Kong, Terry worked with the Government Architects Branch of the NSW Public Service where he attained registration as a Chartered Architect. In 2013, his company was awarded both the Best International Leisure Interior Award at the International Property Awards in London and the Hong Kong Management Association's Quality Award for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises. In 2014, INARC Design was also the recipient of seven prestigious design awards for both Interiors and Architecture in the Asia Pacific region with three of those projects being selected to this year's finals of the International Property Awards to be held later in the year in Dubai.

Mr Michael Wong
Bachelor of Commerce (UNSW), Master in Jurisprudence in Law (University of Oxford), Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (PCLL) (University of Hong Kong)

Michael Wong is a Director at Barclays Capital Asia Limited. In this role, Michael is a member of the Asia Pacific Corporate Finance Solutions Group. Michael's role focuses on the advisory and execution of both debt and equity capital markets transactions covering all jurisdictions between India to Australia. Prior to his role with Barclays, Michael was legal Counsel with Credit Suisse Private Banking and prior to that, Michael was trained as a solicitor with Baker & McKenzie in Hong Kong. Michael was admitted as a solicitor in Hong Kong in 2003.